

Scott Christopher Hartmann

October 20, 2019

Scott Christopher Hartmann, 45, died unexpectedly in his home in Kansas City, MO, Sunday, Oct. 20, 2019, after a long illness.

Scott grew up in Wichita. He was smart, funny, interesting and interested in other people. He loved music, wrote songs, played the guitar, and formed a band. He loved deeply, and was loved by his family and friends.

He was preceded in death by his step-father, David Utermark and step-mother, Tollie Hartmann. He is survived by his father, Steve Hartmann; mother, Carole Utermark; step-sisters, Vicki Drzik, Sara Salyer, Edie Ariestanto and step-brother, Timothy Sparr.

His funeral will be 10:30am Nov. 1, at St. James Episcopal Church, 3750 E Douglas. In lieu of flowers, memorials can be made in his honor to the Missouri Recovery Network, 221 Metro Drive, Ste. B, Jefferson City, MO 65109.