“ m'y dearest Sheila , suddenly you'. dropped out of thé Angelsky to find your way towards me...thanks so much for your work rémbering Tom Petty, who sadly flew away from us all being thé most beautiful Angel amongst thé likes of George Harrison, Roy Orbison , many other musicangels and m'y guitarman Robert Bussemaker. Grateful I am, warm greetings from the Netherlands

“ I met Sheila in 1978 at Ruskin High School. Both of us loved scary books and movies, especially Stephen King.

We enjoyed a lot of concerts together, including Kansas, Styx, Boston, Eagles, REO, Rod Stewart (she was in love with him), Journey, Bob Dylan, Elton John, and Tom Petty (of course)! There were more, what fun we had. We partied, danced, cheered the Royals and Chiefs, took road trips to my grandparents, and celebrated our birth month “all month”!

Sheila was my friend, roommate, bridesmaid, and my son’s godmother.

I will always love you, carry on friend!

“ Sheila: I will always love and miss you here on Earth as a friend. I know you are in Heaven chatting it up with Tom Petty and living la vida loca with your newfound wings. You have learned to fly indeed. To Sheilas family & other friends: we all loved Sheilas silly sense of humor, her warmth, her brutal honesty and her passion for life. Sheila was one in a million & she will never ever be forgotten by all who knew and loved her. God bless our Sheila! xoxoxoxoxo Bonnie Caryn Ensor & Jim Bangert , Forked River NJ
