

Stephanie Ann Schweiger

December 29, 1985 - November 15, 2016

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Stephanie Ann Schweiger (Pittman). Stephanie passed on Tuesday, November 15th in Lees Summit, MO. She was born on December 29, 1985 and is survived by her husband Patrick Schweiger and her three sons: David, Jason and Drake as well as her mother and father, Craig and Tammy Pittman and two sisters, Amy Habel (Daniel Habel) and Jessica Luke (Nicholas Luke) and four nephews: Brendon, Lucas, Ethan and Carson. She is also survived by her grandparents Larry and Helen VanDruff and many aunts, uncles and cousins. Stephanie was a loving mother who had a kind and generous heart and will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her. She was a caring and generous soul who is now smiling down on all those she loved. A celebration of life is being held at 6:00 PM on Monday, Nov. 28th at the Weatherby Lake Community Center, 8230 NW Potomac, Weatherby Lake, MO 64152. In lieu of flowers, donations made to the care of her three children would be greatly appreciated, a Go Fund Me page has been setup: <https://www.gofundme.com/s7-unexpected-loss>

“ You are so missed... By everyone... You thought u were unimportant, no not the case at all... You are soo loved! I can't get you out of my head.. I will miss you till I see you again in heaven.. Remember when you were at the hospital & going to have gal bladder removed, I was so sick and u let me sleep in your bed even though u were the one who was about to have surgery. You sat in a chair and did word finds while I slept.. I remember you took such good care of me always.. U r the absolute best friend anyone could ever ask for. Thank you for always coming to my rescue. . and for the other million things u did to help me.. I love you chaido and don't worry no one will ever forget you..
