

Steven James Estabrook

April 13, 1954 - November 4, 2014

STEVEN J. ESTABROOK, 60, passed away 11/04/2014 at KU Med Center. He was a beloved brother, uncle, son, and friend to many. Steve was a well-known Chef & traveled the country with the Hyatt Hotel Chain. His influences included Cajun, Tex Mex, Seafood, & all American comfort food. He was currently employed at Whole Foods Market where his flair for presentation was valuable in the seafood department. Steven leaves behind a brother Jim Estabrook; 2 sisters, Mary Shugrue & Elaine Hunter; nephews; nieces; & grand nephews and nieces; all of whom will dearly miss him. After his mother passed away he took over family meals at Thanksgiving and Christmas, keeping the tradition alive for the joy it gave the family. He was best known as owner & executor chef at Suzi's Casual Dining, which was family owned & operated. Many people will remember the wonderful food & entertainment he made possible. A Celebration of life will be held 3PM, Sun. 11/16/2014 in a private area at Charlie Hoopers in Brookside (12 w 63rd St, KC, MO). Children of course are welcome.

Previous Events

Celebration of Life

NOV 16. 3:00 PM (CT)

Charlie Hoopers
12 W. 63rd Street
Kansas City, MO 64113