“ Sue was my one and only friend, we talked almost everyday, sometimes twice. I have so many memories of things and thoughts we shared about everything that was going on in our lives right down to what color of fingernail polish we had on. I will always miss her, a part of my heart went with her. I hope her family finds comfort in knowing how much she loved them. I loved her very much. I will miss her calling me Debbie-cakers.

“ Aunt Susie, I love you so much and I miss our long talks on the phone. I often think of how good you made me feel when you told me how proud you and Uncle Jay were of me. I am so happy that you two are back together but I will miss you always. You brought so much warmth to every family gathering, every talk, every thought I have of every holiday. I love you!

“ Susie (my sister from another mother) I couldn't have asked for a better sister! She was 15 when we met and I was 17. We grew up together and grew old together. So many wonderful memories over the years and we've had so many long talks. I so much miss being able to talk to her and being able to go see her and visit with her. The plan we had for the future didn't work out. I loved her very much and miss her everyday!!
