“ I am so saddened to learn of Terry's passing. I worked with Terry as a nurse. I would always stop in her office (or what we called her closet) to say hi for a smile. The last time I saw her she had come over to my home with some of her craft items to sell at my neighbors open house. She always looked beautiful. We would keep in touch through Facebook, now I will stay in touch with her in my prayers. My condolences go out to her family as she would talk about them often. She always spoke so fondly of you all. Heaven has gained an angel, while we have lost one in our physical lives. Rest in peace sweet Terry. We will see you again someday. Love, Kim Andersen and family.

“ Terry was the eldest sister of 4 redheads. I still remember when she took me to the drive in's to see the latest Bruce Lee movie. I was so excited. She was a caring and sensitive individual who will be greatly missed.
