“ I'm so thankful I got to see you Aunt Wanda and tell you what you have meant in my life, you were a wonderful example of a Christian, you were filled with grace and love and always putting family first. I am eternally grateful that you had the conversation with my dad, your brother and led him to Christ. I know you are in heaven rejoicing with all of your family and I know that one day I will be there too!
Love you always,
Your niece Cathy

“ Zayleigh and I love you so much Nanny ❤️ I will never forget how much you loved me and thought of me whether in prayer or in the sweet little things you did! There will never be another person to love me like you did and I'm so thankful I was so lucky to be blessed with you! Although my heart is hurting, I also rejoice in knowing you are with Jesus and family and free. My only regret is not getting to spend all the time I wish I could with you and having you closer to your sweetheart Zayleigh. Until we meet again...We love and miss you so so much and I'll make sure to spoil Zay with Nanny's suckers (blow pops) and she will cherish her baby Diana forever!
