Bill was an attorney most of his professional life graduating from John Marshall Law School. He had been a lieutenant in the Air Force. He studied architecture and had a flare for design and construction. He was fascinated and educated in the area of the history of public transportation. He was multifaceted in his studies and personality with a sharp sense of humor. His charisma could quickly fill a room and he could speak intelligently on so many topics. He loved flying private aircraft, street cars and trains, classic cars, designing and constructing beautiful things, the ballet, Outlaw Radio, dogs, and challenges. He is survived by his wife, Maureen Patton; his son, Matthew William Buck, and his wife, Claire, and their two children, Beatrix and Tabitha; his daughter, Sarah Elizabeth Arthur, and her husband, Trent, and their two children, Grace and Caleb, and his beloved dogs, Tony and Cleo. “ Bill was a remarkable guy with more guts and determination than I have ever seen. He was intent on living his life his way, despite the consequences. At the same time, he had a very big heart and was sometimes generous to a fault.
