

William E Crahan

November 23, 1952 - December 23, 2014

William P. 'Bill' Crahan, 62, passed away Tuesday morning, December 23rd, 2014 surrounded by friends and family. He is survived by his wife Carol Beth Whalen, of Lawrence, KS. and his sister Maggie Loyet, of St. Louis, MO. as well as many loving brothers and sisters in-laws, cousins, nieces, nephews, friends, students and music lovers near and far.

Bill taught guitar and piano in Lawrence, KS. He performed with various musicians in Lawrence and mid-Missouri, and has played at many celebrations and remembrances throughout his life. Bill greatly enjoyed teaching and has found much joy in the accomplishments of all his students. He enjoyed writing music, playing music, biking, building and designing his house, airplanes, his beloved cat Charlie and dog Maggie. A celebration of life is pending.
