“ Thank You all who has been praying for my Family !! On Oct. 22nd my oldest brother Wilson Throgmorton passed unexpectedly of a heart attack at 3 p.m while working in his garage at home. He was only 2 years older than me 46 yrs old. Please say a prayer for my family to have a safe trip to M.O. for his memorial service this Saturday!!! He donated his organs and it took 2 weeks to get his body back for the service also say a prayer for his wife April to give her strength thru this horrible time she is going through right now. They was best friends and soul mates not just her husband they were always with each other doing everything together and it's left a big void in her heart and home !!!

“ Each day brings a new revelation of how much my wonderful husband loved me, in little ways I was to busy to see and I wish I could tell him how much those things really did make a difference to our lives. He carried his part of a marriage and then some. He brighten my mornings and gave sunshine to the rain. From his puttering around getting things ready for the day to his joyful little noises he made, each note was of happiness. And it gave me happiness to know that he was happy and content. Our days of being together may have ended but his memories will long remain. And his good deeds to many to name.
