“ This picture of Zach was so spontaneous! He had just got his Chief slippers before the game started. This is the kind of happiness and joy we always shared together.

“ Zachary Kelley was one of the kindest men. He was a best friend who will be missed greatly. Zachary was more than just a friend, he was more like family. We have so many fond and loving memories of him, that it's hard to know where to begin. I have to say that the one thing that we always did, especially before Cindy his loving wife and my best friend passed away, was the cook-outs every weekend. Even in the winter. Everyone would show up knowing that there was always more than enough food. We always started early afternoon. Zachary and my husband Laurence would sit outside and start the grilling while Cindy and I prepared the side dishes. We would be outside or inside listening to music, watching the game, joking around and there was so much laughter and happiness! When we were together, we functioned as if we all lived together 365 days a year. That is how close of a family we were. Our sons thought of them as an Aunt and Uncle. I know that my brother, Zach, is now reunited with his wife Cindy and they are both happy once again! It's my personal feeling that when Cindy passed away, a major part of him went with her. Zach could try to smile and pretend everything was ok, but when you are that close to someone, you can see it deep in the eyes, catch it in the voice, and know that they are hurting in a way that is beyond comfort. Zachary Kelley, you are missed greatly and will never be forgotten. Rest in peace and know that you are and always will be family. I know that you are happy and reunited with Cindy. The tears that have been shed by us are of happiness. We will see you on the other side.
